

TOTAL SATISFACTION GUARANTEE

Our Total Satisfaction Guarantee (TSG) policy will insure that our products and services have performed above and beyond your expectations. We have built our reputation for retaining and growing our customer base by solving complex application problems using our expertise, innovative products and exceptional service. We ensure that your conveyor systems will run more efficiently, providing a rapid return on investment.

Warranty

Products engineered, manufactured and/or fabricated by ASGCO[®] are warranted at the time of shipment to be free from defects within the tolerances described in the Conveyor Equipment Manufacturers Association Manual or the National Industrial Belting Association's Conveyor Belt Engineering Manual, in the materials and workmanship, provided the products are properly installed, used only for the intended purpose and operated under normal service conditions. ASGCO[®] shall not be liable for products repaired, altered or modified, or for products subject to misuse, negligence, carelessness or accident.

Liability for any products proven defective is limited to the buyer's net purchase price or to the repair or replacement thereof upon its return to ASGCO[®]. In no event shall ASGCO[®] be liable for supply or pay for labor, downtime or any loss or damage, direct, incidental or consequential. ASGCO[®] products returned for inspection must have prior written consent and shall be shipped freight prepaid.

Additional Warranty

All products and services are warranted for 12 months after installation and for 18 months after receipt of order, whichever comes first. This does not include standard wear items.

No modifications to this warranty shall be made by our receipt or acknowledgement of purchase order containing additional or different conditions. For more information please see ASGCO[®] "Complete Conveyor Solutions" Standard Terms and Conditions.
